“ Jeanette Albert was my cherished aunt, my father Raymond's baby sister. Even as a child, I remember how I just loved being around her, for her natural goodness shone so brightly. Her soul is of such beauty that it is almost iridescent. Her gentle soul, her boundless goodness and kindness, her devotion to her family, friends and indeed anyone she came across in life, made hers a life of grace. She was passionate about improving lives of everyone in any way she could, yet discreet in taking any credit for her extraordinary accomplishments. Hers was a noble life. She was so lovely, so beautiful inside and out that even her skin was beautiful right to the end. If you're trying to wade through a difficult decision in life, just ask yourself what she would do, she will help steer you right. Hers was a life of inspiration to us all. And I can see her goodness coming through clearly and strong in her beloved family. My sincere and profound condolences to her family, and to all who knew her.

“ Norman and family,
We are so sorry for your loss. Jeanette was such a sweet woman. I remember many happy conversations with her when we were both outside. She use to pick blueberries and bring some across the street to us. I never had the heart to tell her that I was the only one who liked the berries in my house.
