

Jeannette I (St. Jean) Johnson

September 21, 1928 - June 12, 2023

Jeannette Irene Johnson (née St. Jean)
September 21, 1928 – June 12, 2023

Mrs. Jeannette I. Johnson, 104 St. Martin Street, Fitchburg, Massachusetts passed away on June 12, 2023, after a long battle with illness. She was a longtime resident at Gardner Rehab and Nursing Center in Gardner, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Johnson is predeceased by her husband Kenneth E. Johnson, married for 59 years, her sister, Aline Brassard (née St. Jean), and her youngest son, James Johnson. She also leaves two children, Bernard Johnson (wife, Cheryl) of Middletown, Connecticut, and Dianne Johnson of Fitchburg, Massachusetts. She is also the proud grandmother of Ethan Brown (wife, Sabrina), Jennifer Johnson, and Larissa Nichols. Mrs. Johnson also had the distinction of being a Great-grandmother. She leaves Kenneth Brown and Jensen Brown (3 years and 2 months old respectively).

She attended St. Bernard's Central Catholic High School and held several jobs afterward. She was also a Girl Scout Leader for many years, but her most fulfilling occupation was being a special needs teacher for the city of Fitchburg. Her favorite hobby was being an avid sports fan, gravitating to the Red Sox, Celtics, Bruins, and Patriots. Massachusetts has lost an extremely loyal sports fan.

The funeral for Mrs. Johnson is private and therefore no calling hours will be observed. The burial ceremony will be at the Veterans Cemetery in Winchendon, Massachusetts. The family requests no flowers at this time, but in lieu, please forward contributions to Gardner Rehab and Nursing Center.

“ My father Herbert Johnson (Kenneth's brother in Ohio) and I (Steve Johnson) visited Uncle Kenneth and Jeannette many times in MA since the 1960's. We always had joyful gatherings while sightseeing MA with them. There were always wonderful conversations along with much laughter. I have great memories of all those happy visits.
