“ I've known Jeff since my early twenties. We lost contact over the years, but then found each other again. We picked up right where we left off.
Every single interaction I had with Jeff over the years was positive, always funny, thoughtful and caring. He was the BEST conversationalist ever. We had 2 coasts separating us, but he still checked in on me like a brother. I only wish I was able to see him again and hug him tightly, tell him how amazing he is and how much I appreciate him.

I know Jeff as one of the most loving, caring and just outstanding human beings I've ever met in my life. This is why I reconnected with him. He was extraordinary. I will truly miss everything about him. His passing breaks my heart and is a loss to everyone.

All my luv,

“ Jeff and I went to school together from grade 1 through 12. He was my best friend in the first grade. Although we kind of drifted apart as years went on, I always considered him a true friend. He was a great guy and I will miss him chiming in on my Facebook posts about my music career. He always commented with words of encouragement! Rest In Peace my friend.
