"We all live on borrowed time. People come and go so unexpectedly, we sometimes forget that nothing really lasts as long as we hoped it would. Surely, losing someone dear to us can be a heartbreaking experience, but it's something we need to accept in order to continue on with our lives."

The T.J. Anderson and Son Funeral Home, 250 Main St., Townsend is assisting the family with the funeral arrangements. For further information or to leave an online condolence please visit our website at www.andersonfuneral.com.

“ This may be a bit tardy, but Mr. araujo loved sitting out back in his chair. If I was lucky, he would see me wave and return the wave with a hello. God bless him and his wife.

“ This is so sad, Mr. Araujo was one of the last original Warren Road residents and I have known him for most of my life. In the past few years we would always seem to be grocery shopping at the same time and have a lovely visit down at Hannaford's. On behalf of my whole family we send our deepest sympathy's to John's family. Rest in peace friend, I will miss you very much.
