

John D. Miller

June 17, 2017

John was born in Concord, January 21, 1978, the son of David W. and Linda K. (Welch) Miller and resided in Athol for the past five years.

John grew up in Ayer. He studied electronics at Nashoba Valley Technical High School in Westford, graduating in 1997.

For over 17 years, John worked in the shipping and receiving department at Home Depot in Leominster. He was also employed part time at Wendy's Restaurant in Leominster.

Besides his parents of Ayer, he leaves his son, Aidan Pasic Miller of Athol his sister, Kathleen M. Lewis and her family of Ayer. He also leaves three uncles, Mike Welch, Steven Welch, Gary Welch, his aunt, Lorraine Welch and innumerable friends.

In March of 2011 he was predeceased by a sister, Cynthia A. Miller of New Orleans, LA.

John enjoyed sports and was a fan of the Boston sports teams but his favorite pastime was simply hangin' out, spending time with his "best little buddy", his son and sidekick, Aidan. They shared many interests among which the Star Wars movie series and The Simpsons loomed large.

John was a wonderful son and father who was loved and will be missed very much by everyone who knew him.

“ John, when I heard of your passing I didn't know what to think. You were always the one person that I could look too when I'm stressing out at work since you always stay calm and have a reassuring attitude. I thought having to say goodbye to you when I left Wendy's was hard, but saying goodbye to you now is so much more painful. I wish I could have been there once more in your time of need like you've always been for me and everyone else. You were a great worker but you were a better friend. You will be forever immortalized as a legend in our thoughts and in our hearts. Farewell and rest easy.

“ To say John is in a better place is only stating the obvious, because anywhere is a better place with him around. My heart goes out to John's family, as his passing has shaken all of his friends, and my condolences go to his son. John and I shared many conversations about his son and it seemed like an inbreakable bond, always making time for his son, something I can truly appreciate from a man as busy as John was. He was always a shoulder to cry on and always was there if you needed someone to talk to, and always left you in good spirits, and this is what makes anyone a truly legendary companion. His memory is alive and well in myself, Sean, and everyone else that had the pleasure to meet him at Wendy's.

“ I had the pleasure to work with him over the course of the past year and a half at Wendy's and am so glad I have been given the opportunity to do so. He would give me rides home after work every Friday night when we closed together. John was a great guy - the best of the best. I will miss his laughter and our Star Wars conversations that we would have with eachother. I have been making a Star Wars fan film for a while now, and since John was quite the Star Wars fan himself, I was hoping to show it to him once it was complete, but, unfortunately that is now not possible due to that fact that he is no longer with us. When the film is complete however, I would like to possibly show it to his son Aidan, since I remember John told me he was also really into Star Wars.

“ Johnny was a quiet shy guy. He missed nothing that went on around him and felt things deeply. He had a wonderful sense of humor and we had many hilarious times together at work. He will be greatly missed by many. My condolences to his parents, sister and son.
