

John Henry Coffey

July 11, 2017

John was born on February 13, 1943, the only son of the late Joseph and Mary (Mulkeen) Coffey. He lived on his family farm on North End Road in Townsend.

He spent a good deal of his childhood at the Coffey family farm on Summer Road in Boxboro as well. After high school, John served in the US Air Force from 1962-1966 where he made lifelong friends. After leaving the Air Force, John was employed by the Massachusetts Port Authority in Boston where he spent his career supporting runway safety and facilities. In 2002 John retired as foreman in the Water Department after 38 years of service.

John enjoyed spending time with his family (including his beloved German Shepherds), camping in South Carolina, bragging about his grandchildren, storytelling, and spending time on his farm. In his early years, he enjoyed dealing cattle with his late father Joe, cousin John "Jackie" McGuigan and good friends "on the Hill."

He leaves behind his wife of 28 years Laurel (Abbott) Coffey of Townsend; his children, Suzanne N. Camacho and her husband, Oscar, of Clarksburg, MD, Daniel F. Coffey of Glendale Heights, IL, Clancy E. La Breche and her husband Scott of Bedford, NH; and stepson Kenneth A. Sears and wife Melody of Gardner, MA; and seven grandchildren, Kalen, Eliana, Braeden, Daniel, Annabel, Cecelia, and Olivia.

He was preceded in death by his son, Sean Michael Coffey who died in 1979 and by his aunt, Margaret T. Coffey of Boxboro, who was a second mother to John.

“ Recently I went to the dentist. As I was locking my bike to the handicap pole (usually the only thing available), a couple parked in the space. They came in after me and sat down, and looked about 20 years younger than I. Both were using canes. After the man went in for his torture, the woman and I got to talking. Turns out she has MS, and is a vegan. I told her about Dr. Wahls and how she had reversed her MS through dietary changes. I've wondered ever since which came first for her, MS or veganism. She said she followed Dr. McDougall's way of eating. She didn't seem militant about it. I hope I planted a seed. I talked to her about the fat-soluble vitamins and the importance of eating eggs.

“ I was a boy, about 10 yrs old when we used to visit with our cousins, the Coffeys, in Townsend. Reminiscing, Uncle John was a serious man. I don't remember him smiling. He always had the same expression on his face. I don't remember a great deal about him. This is a boy's perspective...

Coming from a city, I always loved visiting the farm and playing with Sean, Suzie, Danny and Clancy. Sean and I were about the same age, so we had a lot in common and were never bored getting into mischief on the farm. We would go down the road to the neighbor's house. Nancy Loudon, I believe it was your house. There was a boy named Adam who lived there. Is he the same person as the one you mentioned in your closing? He had had very defined arms, baseballs for biceps. I was jealous of those arms. LOL We had fun together and I have very happy memories of those times... I also remember a girl named April who was a neighbor on the other side of the Coffey residence but that is all I remember about her.

I didn't mean to be long winded in my trip down memory lane but given the fact that I won't be able to attend either the wake nor the funeral, I chose to. I haven't thought about that in a very long time...It brought a smile to my face. I miss Sean too!!

Uncle John rests in peace now and doesn't have to feel any pain from the cancer that afflicted him and his family doesn't have to watch him go through it either. For that, I am grateful. Now is the time for healing from the loss. My sister, Kim, and I share the same sentiment, that Uncle John and Sean are together once again...
