

Jonathan R. Steimel

August 8, 2017

It is with great sadness that the family of Jonathan R. Steimel, formerly of Townsend, announces his passing on Jonathan was born in Fitchburg on September 15, 1984 a son of the late Janet M. (McMurray) and grew up in Townsend graduating from North Middlesex Regional High School in 2003.

He worked as a landscaper for Alliance Landscaping and enjoyed the outdoors, adventure and quality time with his family.

Jon will be lovingly remembered by his parents, Raymond and Linda Steimel of Amherst, NH; two brothers, Ryan J. Steimel of Blackstone and Bryan A. Williams of Pepperell; three sisters, Shelly L. Laquinta of Providence, RI, Amy B. Hildreth and Jessie I. Gaudette both of Ashburnham; his nine nephews and nieces and family.

“ What I in reality concern myself most about is health information. On my own, I sign up for magazines oriented toward this subject, and I continue enlightened about the latest wellness research. In what way is this relevant? I feel there's no more significant focus for my hours. Furthermore, this site seems as though it's deserving my time to read. I dig through thousands and thousands or more of blogs weekly. Truth be told, my spine always is uncomfortable and I desire a different pursuit. lol Nevertheless, I think if absolutely everyone published about their niche in life, and did it cogently, we'd have a much more interesting planet. <http://njmassages.com/Event-Massage-Party/>

“ Ray, Ryan, and family,

I am so sorry to learn of Jonathan's passing. I babysat for him and for Ryan for awhile when Janet returned to teaching, and was in the babysit co-op with Janet, where we became good friends. I would also see her with the boys at library events and Halloween parades, etc. Later on, I was a substitute teacher in Townsend schools, and kept up with the boys as they grew. I will always have fond memories of Jonathan...My sympathy, thoughts, and prayers to his family.
