He leaves his son, Owen Ebbs of Amherst who was the center of his universe, and loved beyond measure; his sweetheart, Tricia Doyle of Lowell, whom he loved with all his heart and showed her in countless ways each day; his mother, Elsie (Hill) Ebbs of Townsend; a brother, John Ebbs of Nashua, NH; two sisters, Sharon Cunha of Pepperell and Joan Lemere of Winchendon; his best friend, Clarence Roy of Townsend and several nephews, nieces and cousins.

“ My deepest condolences to all of Joe's family and friends who knew and loved him. I knew Joe as my cousin growing up, but I was blessed to know Joe again over the last 10 or so years as we chatted late into the evening on Face Book many many times. Joe would reach out to check on my family anytime there was a bad storm or hurricane headed toward Florida, or just to say hi, how's it going. Joe talked about Owen any chance he got, and loved him more than I can put into words. See here's the thing about Joe that many may not realize, he loved everyone. It became clear to me that Joe truly cared more about others than himself. Family is a word that means so much to so many, but to Joe its meaning was far greater. Forget About Me I Love You = FAMILY Joe never talked about himself in our chats, but he did always talk about his friends, family, and especially Owen. Owen, I told your dad that the next time you guys made it down to Florida, you'd have a place to stay. Well Owen, that offer still stands. We lost an amazing soul, but I promise you all that he is in Paradise with Jesus, and I look forward to the day we meet again.

“ The Belvedere gang will greatly miss Joe. He came into our sometimes raucous group with total enthusiasm and fully willing to participate in the banter. At the same time you could tell he was a kind soul and would do anything for you. He treated our Trisha with Love and kindness. Our deepest sympathy to his Family.
With Love.

“ Joe was an enthusiastic team member here at AMSC. He loved the work that we were doing as a company, and he loved to work as well. He came to handle a large number of the testing activities here without a great deal of supervision. A kindly person, and always ready to bring up, laugh at or respond to a suddenly relevant quip from Dr. Who, Star Trek, The Big Bang Theory, the Simpsons and so on (these were somehow relevant while we were doing our testing activities). Joe will be greatly missed.

“ I was hired at AMSC as an Engineer around the same time Joe came on board. We went to a multi-day training together that first summer and spent quite a number of hours chatting each day there. He was a great person to be around, extremely upbeat and very personable. We would talk about sci-fi, cars, and the day to day in the cafeteria while getting coffee in the morning or on lunch break. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends, he will be greatly missed.

“ Aunt Elsie, Sharon, Joan and John, my deepest sympathy to you all. I was so glad to connect up with cousin Joe as he would say on facebook several years ago and felt like a connection to my mother's, brother's family. Joe was such a happy and funny guy and full of whit. I so enjoyed getting to know him and still remember my time I spent with all of you so many years ago. I will miss him and I pray for God's comfort and peace to fill your hearts. With love,
