

Joseph E. LePage

March 19, 1943 - October 5, 2020

Fitchburg-Born in Cambridge on March 19, 1943, Joseph was one of four siblings, born to the late Henry and Margaret (Mello) Le Page.

An avid outdoorsman, Joseph enjoyed fishing and boating. He was a big sports fan and was a member of the local bowling league for many years and played cribbage at the senior center. In addition, he cherished spending time with his family and friends. Down to earth, quick with a joke, he enjoyed making people laugh and always feel welcome. If he was your friend, he was a loyal friend.

Joseph's arrangements are under the direction of Isabelle-Anderson Funeral
