TOWNSEND: Joseph B. Ruth, III, 68, of Townsend, formerly of Ashburnham, died Sunday, January 14, 2024 at Brigham & Women's Hospital, Boston following a lengthy illness.

“ It has been a year since the devastating news of Joe’s passing. I still find it hard to believe.

I first met Joe in the Spring of '85 during baseball tryouts at Fitchburg State in their old “gymnasium”. He was talking to Coach Dick Ballou and motioning to me from across the floor. Dressed in nice slacks, shoes, and sporting a tie, I honestly thought he was one of the Deans and worried I was being placed on academic probation. I was introduced (relieved) and chatted about how he had just formed a new team in Lunenburg, and asked if I’d be willing to play “Summer” ball with the Phillies. I felt privileged and graciously accepted. This was the start of a 39-year friendship.

I played the next 2 seasons with the Phillies before moving out of the area lacing up with the old “Chelmsford Merchants” skippered by the late Harry J. Ayotte. We routinely played the Phillies and it was always great to catch up with Joe about the team and antics from my old team mates. After 5 more seasons, a growing family, and other career commitments, I hung up my spikes. Fast-forward 8 years and our family had since moved to Townsend, just around the corner from the Ruth’s. We would occasionally bump into each other and talk about nothing but, Baseball. Amazingly, he could still play a mean second base! On one sunny Sunday morning at St. Johns, Joe was heading to service through the parking lot and I amusingly floated the idea of making a comeback at the ripe old age of 38. Needless to say, I don’t think he took me seriously but didn’t discourage me from trying. For the next 17 seasons I donned the Phillies uniform as a player, assistant coach, website manager, and the rare times he missed a game. And Joe continued to play into his early 60’s! Incredible. There are few who can wear the badge of “Player/Coach” with honor – and he did.

During this 17-year stretch, we spent many seasons from early indoor tryouts/spring training to wrapping up the season at the annual team rewards ceremony. I had the opportunity to play with his son Andy too – not many Fathers can boast about executing a double play with their Son. For those who played on the Phillies, it was a long, 13-week season. Sometimes due to rainouts, 7 games in 7 days. And Joe loved it. I used to call him a "Crazy Baseball Nut". He would look at me, say nothing and just return a big smile. This man had so much energy and despite 8 years my elder, never seemed to tire. His commitment to the game, the players, and the league was immeasurable. I've been with my wife Kelly for 40 years. Every year she would sarcastically joke that #2 (Joe) was my summertime husband. And Mary Jane, as Joe would always confess to me, "is an absolute Saint to put up with me." I never disagreed.

Joe had an encyclopedic memory when it came to the Phillies. He could remember our opponent, the field, who was pitching, the inning, score, who was on base, umpires, and the batter's count on every consequential play for the last 40 seasons. And there was never a shortage of stories. He loved to talk about the myriad of stories!

There were many road trips after a practice, or to and from games where we had some personal time to share what's going on in our lives outside of baseball. Often, it would be discussing recent family events. Joe loved his family. We had a lot in common – being the only 2 baby boomers on the team. Over the last 2 years, and I had since retired from the team, his joy was the grandchildren. He was so proud.

I could go on and on about my good friend, but I'll probably exceed some character limit when posting.

Joe, you are sorely missed, you will always be missed, and I am so grateful to have known you.

RIP, and God Bless.

Your friend, Joel

“Candle lit by Steven Koroskenyi on January 19th, 2024

Joe, It was a pleasure knowing you and a privilege to be known by you as one of the Phillies pioneers. Knowing that I was a member of the Pepperell Jets, the forerunner of the Phillies, you gave me a chance to try out one more time at the age of 36, and I made the club, which was a bucket list item for me.

We talked baseball, family, faith, and life through the years from time to time. Your commitment to the team was as deep as my commitment to the church. Our commitments kept us both busy and dedicated. Part of my job is to make sure people get right with God. To those who read this, I can tell you that Joe had a strong faith in God, and once I learned that, I never worried about that again. Joe, your absence will be felt down at Marshall Park, and in the hearts of the hundreds of quality baseball players who had the privilege of playing for you on the Phillies.

I wanted to be there for the funeral, but an emergency at the church prevented me from leaving the building.

I am wearing my Phillies hat today in your honor, and I look forward to meeting up with you for some “around the horn” over in glory. Rest in peace, Joe. You loved your family and carried the burden for the Phillies so faithfully.

To Joe’s wife and family, may I say a humble thank you for letting Joe live the dream. Without you, he couldn’t have done it. I am deeply saddened with the news of Joe’s passing. I will think of him often.

If there is ever anything I can do for you, please let me know.

“ Joe was my friend for over 25 years. He was there for me during some of the toughest times in my life. That's the definition of a true friend. He never turned his back on you or walked away for any reason.

I loved our conversations about anything baseball, especially the hidden ball trick (he still tried to convince me it was the best play in baseball lol)...he loved the Red Sox, the TV show 24, and his family. He was so proud of his children.

I know I will have a huge void in my heart when I watch Red Sox games... :-)

He was a loving husband to Mary Jane, a father, a grandfather, and friend to so many.

I will miss you Joe...thank you for always being there for me! 😭😭

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time. Joe was a Great Coach, player and friend. Had so many great memories playing for the Phillies. The one that we always talked about, besides winning the league, was the time Joe and his family was away and we turned his yard into a nine hole golf course, with flag sticks we stole from Monoosnoc Golf course. Get times!! We will miss ya Coach!! Rest in Peace

“ Joe is my cousin...only three weeks older. And though we did not grow up in the same state and barely knew each other, when I finally met and spent a little time with him it was so easy and fun and comfortable, as if we had known each other all along. That is because of what an amazing guy he is. Caring, funny, engaging. He called me often just to chat even if he was feeling poorly. I always felt so honored and blessed by those calls. I know the world was a much better place because of him and he was a hero to many. My heart goes out to the entirety of his amazing family who must feel devastated by his passing. May an image of his release from suffering blanket you with peace.

“ Mary Jane and family,

My heartfelt condolences on your loss. It seems surreal to me that Joe is gone. I worked with him at Rollstone Bank, in the office next to him. We had a lot of fun over the years. When you spend so much of your life at work, it makes your workday more enjoyable to have fellow colleagues who enjoy a laugh. And besides baseball, I can attest that he also had a great love for his family, his dogs and practical jokes, in particular April Fools Day (month)! I have included several pictures. May the many wonderful memories of him sustain you through this difficult time. He will be greatly missed.

MJ and kids, we are so very sorry to hear about Joe. I had been in contact with him up to a few weeks ago. I know how much he loved you guys and never stopped talking about you all. Joe was always my biggest supporter when I played for him and when I moved on. He would call or drop in to see how I was doing on a fairly regular basis. In recent years, he would call to check in on how Steph and my kids were doing which to me was so very kind. That was the kind of person he was and you all should be so proud of his legacy and what he did for baseball in our area. He was more than a coach he was a friend to so many of us who had the pleasure of laying for him. I will miss our conversations, but remember all the good times we had. I only played for the Phillies a year and a half, but I had more fun and more great stories than I can remember. That is how I will remember Joe!
May God bless you all and if there is anything I can do, please let me know
