

Kathleen (Flynn) Pappas, of Lunenburg

November 16, 1944 - May 22, 2025

LUNENBURG: Kathleen Flynn Pappas, 80, was born November 16, 1944, in Boston, Massachusetts, passed away peacefully on May 22, 2025.

A devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Kathy's greatest joy in life was her family.

She was feisty and fierce, especially in the way she loved and protected those she held dear. Kathy was preceded in death by her beloved daughter, Jeanne Pinault, whose memory remained forever close to her heart.

She is survived by her daughter Elena Tucker and her husband Steve of Phillipston, and by her son Michael Chandler and his wife Tammi of Fitchburg. Her legacy lives on through her six grandchildren—Steve, Kelsey, Matthew, Michael, Austin, and Ethan—and three great-grandchildren: Azalea, Avery, and Hannah.

Kathy was a lifelong animal lover, especially fond of horses, and was known for her gentle spirit, fierce loyalty, and unwavering compassion toward all living things. Her kindness and strength touched many lives.

She will be remembered for her determination, her deep devotion to others, the warmth of her laugh, and the strong, purposeful way she lived her life.

Services will be held privately. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her name to either the Pat Brody Cat Shelter in Lunenburg or Horse Welfare and Rescue in Connecticut.
