“ To the family of Ken LaFrenier from a long time friend and antique collectibles companion ~
Ken and I met at an informal antique insulator collectible swap meet back in the early 1980's and became good friends sharing in that mutual interest for nearly 30 years. I visited Ken & Mary often at their Central Street home from where we would venture out to various antique shows and sales. We would meet often, almost weekly, for swap and trade at Brookline village New Hampshire and share many stories with lots of laughter. Ken was a great friend, kind, generous, and always of good cheer no matter the peripheral circumstances. We lost contact around 2013-14 when phone calls and letters went unanswered. Much searching and inquiring brought no answers. With tears, I sadly discovered this page only recently while searching once again for my good friend Ken. I know now he is resting in peace and with many good times laughing and sharing Ken will be remembered.

“ To a man I remember as a hardworker, to whom my best friend looked up to. I'll never forget the way you shifted your nova or brought us to Rietta Ranch, the laundromat, and Queen Lake. To his family and friends, I'm so sorry for your loss. My thoughts are with you all.
