“ Things I love about Kerrie - she had a beautiful open smile, was enthusiastic about her interests and really engaged in life. She had an insight into people which was often expressed in the stories she told - funny, accurate, and at the same time with affection. So sad to know we won't see each other again.

“ I will always remember your smile and your sense of humor. You knew more about the Red Sox than the Red Sox did. You will be missed. Our condolences go out to all Kerrie's family and friends. Heaven has gained another angle, fly high my friend.
