“ I Love you Kim. You were so small , and your heart was huge, you were fierce. Kinda scary😂 We drove you nuts, and you were so funny. I loved the sound of your laugh.😊 I don't know how we go on when a hole in your heart seem too big to ever heal.💔 We remember you. You will always be alive in our hearts. I don't get it. Be free Kim you were an angel on earth as you in heaven. You are forever in my heart.💖🥰😇😭

“ I looked up to my big cousin Kim. I remember when visiting my Aunt Kat and Uncle Henry when I was young and seeing my teen age cousin either ironing her hair with an actual iron or curling it using empty soup cans! I was very sorry to hear of her passing. Her and her family are in my thoughts and prayers. Cousin Debbie (Girouard)
