“ It was through Facebook that I read of Kyle's passing. We never really knew each other, but more or less knew of each other, along with his brothers. We grow and leave life in Shirley shine is ,but still sadden by the news of others passing that have crossed my path sometime in our lives, If only for a short time. To the Keady family I'm sorry for your loss. May our father in heaven keep Kyle till we all meet up again.

We used to commute to and from Boston and when he went through the Chemo I knew that he was so dedicated to the community of Shirley as was his father Dan. I have so many good memories.

“ My wife Nicole and I offer our deepest condolences to the Keady family.

The Keadys have been part of my life since I met the five boys the summer before I entered sixth grade. We were playing street hockey at the Mohawk Club parking lot. I hit Kyle's brother Kevin over the head with my hockey stick and got yelled at by my brother ... but from that day on, the Keadys were part of my of my life and I've been good friends with Kevin ever since.

In some ways, it doesn't seem that long ago that Kyle and Kraig were little brothers running around the Keady porch playing pinball and jumping on me and Kevin. There always seemed to be plenty of life to go around. Sadly, Kyle's passing reminds us that there isn't always plenty of life to go around, and that we should all embrace those whom we love everyday, and be grateful for their presence in our lives.

I, for one, am grateful for having known the Keadys all these many years.

“ Didn't have the pleasure of meeting Kyle but have got to know Kurt over the past few years and my heart is out to losing a younger brother. He was obviously a fighter to have endured all that he has. Celebrate his life today I'm sure he had the same sense of humor and wit that Kurt has. Enjoy the rekindling of friendships as at the end its what we will be measured by.
RIP Kyle

“ Kyle, I can't sleep listening to the rain and thinking of you and your great family.

First, I want to say I'm happy to know your suffering is over and you are resting at peace with your father, many other relatives and some great legends from Shirley that you looked up to over the years. It's amazing the memories that come back when I reflect of the many happy days and nights with you, all the other KJK's (Jimmy Quinty line) and your parents Danny and Pat. I think your sense of humor came from an early age when you learned your middle name was Jerome. How did Jeffrey slip past you to Kraig? Kurt recently told me your parents may have gotten that name from a bishop...Let's hope so.

One of my first memories of you and your family was when you lived in that first big house on the right as you drove past the gates into the old Industrial School for the boys. Scott, Kurt and I were in Kindergarten at the Federated Church in Ayer and our parents shared carpooling us to school. More often than not Daniel T. was the driver and you and Kraig would proudly stand on the front seat next to your Dad. It must have been that early childhood memory that made you a strong advocate for seat belt safety and laws.

I remember doing some chores at Squanacook Road cleaning out that back porch where the pinball machines were and various other tasks at Bob Cheverette's house. You would say, go home you don't have to do this. I always looked forward to the pizza's your father would treat us to from the Mohawk.

I remember you laughing your hard laugh when watching us drive Keith's old white car through the back yard and Keith telling us to slow down...I look back now, we inspired him to become a police officer. One of the funniest memories was when your father agreed to raise pigs for Harry Sindon, Tom Johnston and numerous Boston Bruin players. Keith was bored one day and decided to paint the different players names on the pigs. Obviously Danny and the 5 KJK's were big Bruins fans as evidenced by all the players sticks we all got to use. The biggest Bruins fan of them all was Mrs Keady. While all squeezed together in that tiny living room she would be in her chair with her hassack kick saving the puck like Ed Johnson or

Gerry Cheevers.

I could go on and on with my stories with the Keady family, but I would be remiss if I didn't mention the apple of your eye, one Deven Keady. You and Laurie did a phenomenal job raising him to the man he is today. You can rest knowing he will always have a strong support system with family and friends. I would encourage others to share their stories of you with Deven.

In closing...May the Road rise to meet you...May the wind be always at your back...May the sun shine warm upon your face and rain fall soft upon your fields...And until we meet again...MAY GOD HOLD YOU IN THE PALM OF HIS HAND...Fonz

“ *Who was more fun to talk with than Kyle? On politics, sports or anything really, he brought an energy to the discussion that was infectious. We will always remember his positively "Rainman" command of numbers and his laugh with his hand on my shoulder...always his hand on my shoulder. He was the first person Beth met when she moved to town. He stopped by the house to welcome her and get her vote..go figure!
