

Lesley B. (Field) Dunbar

May 18, 2018

She was born in Wayland, MA on February 2, 1934 a daughter of the late Erlund O. and Dorothy (Finch) Field.

Lesley pursued several careers in her long and colorful life: as a Nursery School and Kindergarten teacher, a Real Estate Agent, a wallpaper and painting business called Charlie's Other Angels, and finally as a bus driver for the Peterborough, Concord-Carlisle and Acton-Boxborough school systems.

She excelled and taught all kinds of sports: skiing, field hockey, softball, basketball, tennis, badminton, soccer, swimming, croquet, etc. She loved animals of every shape and size from the domestic (dogs and cats) to the exotic (a racoon). She was an accomplished equestrian and 4-H leader. She loved the outdoors.

She leaves her son, John E. Dunbar of McLean, VA; a daughter, Heather Dunbar of Ayer; a brother Peder Field of Stow, MA; two sisters, including her twin, Jennifer Stowell of Proctorville, VT and Betsy Bergen of South Hadley, MA; two grandchildren, Grace E. Dillon and her husband John and Joshua E. Dunbar.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Leslie's passing. We still remember when she dressed up as Santa for the kids all those years ago when we all lived at Drummer Farms. Life got in the way over the years and it was hard to stay in touch. We loved her.

“ My deepest sympathies to Lesley's family. I loved this woman. She always made me laugh! Her tough exterior masked her marshmallow heart of gold. Mar Beth
