Dear Dave and family. Our sympathies for the loss of your mother. Everything I heard about her was positive. Everyone loved her. I can see where you Dave got your warm heart and loving personality. Love you, Carolee and Johnny.

I first met Ray and Meme when I rented my apartment from them. She became a very dear friend and a great in-law to my sister for the past 48 years. She has always put God and family as her priorities. She spent most of this time raising her family alone when she lost her husband at the young age of 57. God has received a very special angel on Tuesday, and we will miss her a lot. I will have to have a moxie and celebrate your life, my friend!
