FITCHBURG – Louise M. (Ouellette) Berube, 85, of Fitchburg, passed away peacefully on March 20, 2024 in River Terrace Healthcare.

Louise was born in Fitchburg on June 22, 1938, a daughter of the late Arthur and Beatrice (Sabourin) Ouellette. She graduated from Saint Bernard's High School in 1956, and a year later married Roland G. Berube, with whom she shared 51 years of marriage together, before his passing in 2008.

As a young woman Louise enjoyed skiing, an activity she always remembered fondly. She was a devout catholic, and a lifelong parishioner of Saint Joseph Church in Fitchburg, where she was a Eucharistic Minister and very active in several other ministries. Louise was an extremely selfless and loving wife, mother and grandmother; she was always giving of herself and donated to many charities.

Louise loved spending time with her family, and always enjoyed her home on Lake Watatic. She looked forward to lunch and going to the hairdresser with her niece Susan, and her Patriots games and trips to the casino with her niece Leeny. Visits to the lake, lunches and dinners were such treasured times Louise spent with her late niece Ann Marie.

She is survived by her four children, Pamela Overton of Tega Cay, SC, Steven Berube of Wardsboro, VT, Michael Berube of Kailua, HI, Norman Berube and wife Cynthia of Chelmsford; grandchildren, Tyler, Jillian, and Ethan Berube, Meredith Berube, Dustin Overton and wife Megan, and Delaney Overton; a brother Andre Ouellette of Westminster; many nieces and nephews.

Louise was predeceased by her siblings, Claire Ouellette, Lucille Richard, Theresa Leger, Priscilla Stragliotto, William, Alphonse, and John Ouellette.

“ Dear Steve, Pam, Michael, Norman & families,
I am so very sorry that I won't be back on time to attend Aunt Louise's services. She will be missed. She use to call ocassionlly to keep in touch and to catch up. She kept me connected to the Ouellette scoops after my Mom and Dad were no longer around. I always enjoyed her upbeat attitude.
She remembered important family dates and would call when it was my Mom or my Dad's anniversary, and even for my birthday! And boy, did she love her kids and their families. She was so appreciative for all that you did for her.
So my dear cousins, I will continue to pray for her and all of you.
She'd like that. 💕
With love and sympathy,
June
