“ Pat and Ron were the first couple that we met when we became seasonal campers 9 years ago at Oxbow Campground. They were so kind and welcoming to both Joe and I. We became very close neighbors they even shared there home with us in Florida for a winter vacation a couple of years ago where we played dominoes till the wee hour of the mornings and enjoyed the beautiful Gulf waters. We will never forget there kindness they made us feel like we were family. Pat and my husband Joe were both famous as to who was going to out sleep the other, but I am sure that Joe won that contest. We will never forget you Pat we Love you, rest easy Pat you were a wonderful neighbor Thank you for being our friend. Joe & Debbie
