

Marie L. (MacMillan) Sheen

January 11, 1926 - April 20, 2019

Shirley: Marie L. (MacMillan) Sheen, 93, of Shirley, passed away in peace and comfort in her home on Saturday, April 20th, 2019, at age 93.

Marie Louise MacMillan was born on January 11, 1926 in Everett, Mass. Marie served in the Women's Army Corps as a first lieutenant during the Korean war. As a civilian, Marie rose through the ranks in government service in the field of finance, eventually serving as the Budget Comptroller at Fort Stuart, Georgia - the home of the storied 24th Mechanized Infantry Division. Marie retired from government service as a GS13.

Shortly after her retirement, Marie purchased her dream home near the beach in northeast Florida. While living there Marie golfed daily, and became very active in the local Sea Turtle Watch organization, which gave her great pleasure.

Marie is survived by three children, five grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers or other memoria, Marie's family encourages you to make a donation in her name to the Nassau County Council On Aging, 1901 Island

Walkway, Fernandina Beach, FL 32034.

The Anderson Funeral Home, Ayer is assisting the family with arrangements.
