

Marion H. (Lund) Cote

March 16, 2017

She was born in Worcester, September 16, 1927 a daughter of Marion (Corydon) and William Lund.

She graduated from Classical High School in 1945, and from Worcester State Teacher's College in 1951. She then worked as an elementary school teacher in Grafton.

In 1960, she married Joseph Cote, and the couple settled in Townsend. She returned to teaching in the 1970's, working as a home and hospital tutor for the local school district. Her husband Joseph died in 2008. Marion was an active members of Our Lady of the Lake Church in Leominster and St. John's Parish in Townsend. She frequented the Townsend Senior Center since its opening, leading its morning exercise classes. Her passions included reading, gardening – and until recently – bicycling and ice skating.

She leaves two sons: Jean-Joseph of Lunenburg and his longtime partner Nancy Duprey; Alan of Williston VT, and his wife Meghan Cope along with their daughters Geneva and Celia.

Her only sibling William Lund Jr. passed away in 1988.

“ I remember when I was little going to stay at her house in Townsend. Her mom was my mother's neighbor (Dorothy Wyman.) I remember we went bike riding...
Her son Jean was my friend. We build a fort in the backyard and she taught me how to make macaroni salad with just bacon and mayo. and my son's loved it they are 43 + 38 now. My name used to be Janet Wyman if you read this Jean hi had a lot of fun when we were growing up. Live in florida now for the past 32 yrs. My sister still lives in family home on uxbridge st. Text me if u want 4075089083. Your long lost friend Janet
