“ I have known the Davan family for about 40 years. My brother Brian became close friends with Mike and my Uncle Gary married Brenda...it was really wonderful how our families became one. I've always thought the world of the whole family. My thoughts and love are with you all❤️

“ We had only know Margie for 2 years and she made a lasting impression on the lives of myself, my husband, Troy and our children and grandchildren. We are going to miss her dearly. It won't be the same at camp not hearing "Hey Troy" followed by a witty comment coming from the yard next door. We mourn with you all. She was a joy to be with.
