“ I met Mark my first year at Clark University. He lived in the room across the hall. I could not have foretold the influence he would have on me. From stories of international adventures (riding motor bikes on Rhodes, the pyramids, the temples of Thailand) to his take on word politics, Mark was truly a major factor in my extracurricular education. I remember several visits to the lake in New Hampshire, including bringing my sons there, as little boys, and climbing Mt Major with Mark. Alas, the twists of life resulted in longer absences, but we still kept in touch. Twelve years ago, we met in NYC to see some music. Then, this past August, we got together with three other friends. I am so glad I got to see him at this gathering. Jennifer, I think about how much you must miss him. I am so sorry about his passing.
Mark-- we all miss you so.

“ Sorry for your loss Jennifer. Mark was a kind soul. He was very smart, worldly, and had a great sense of humor. We had such great discussions and fun in our college years. Visits at the lake were also fun and memorable. I am so glad we got together just 3 weeks ago. I will always remember him. Tim Gould

“ On Angel's wings you were taken away, but in my heart you will always stay. There's no words to express what you meant to me and for being the Dad you did not have to be. A beautiful person with a wonderful heart. I miss you so much since we had to part. We may have not been related by blood, but you loved me more than anyone could. I'll treasure the memories and I'll try not to feel sad. Because I was so lucky to have the perfect Dad. Love and miss you everyday, till we meet again love Tracey ❤️
