

Mary E. (Blanchard) Clayton

March 15, 2017

She was born in Groton on January 13, 1951, a daughter of the late, George and Shirley (Hallet) Blanchard. She graduated from Groton-Dunstable High School in 1969 and has resided in Ashby since 1993. Prior to 1993 she had lived in Townsend and Pepperell.

Mary was a cash office associate at Wal-Mart in Rindge, NH for many years prior to her retirement. Several years ago she owned and operated the former Beauty Bar in Acton.

Mary was an active volunteer with Wal-Mart raising funds for the Children's Hospital at Dartmouth-Hitchcock (CHAD) in New Hampshire. She also worked in support of Veterans groups, Police, Fire and Ambulance units.

She leaves her husband of 38 years, Robert L. Clayton of Ashby; a son, James Robert Clayton of Ashby and a daughter, Kathryn Marie Clayton of Northbridge.

She was loved very much and will be remembered for her strength, heart and her humor. Mary's family would like to thank the Ashby Ambulance staff for the compassionate and professional care.
