“ As a neighbor and a friend for 40+years, in the Edward Road neighborhood I always, without a doubt knew her to be one of the most kind and sweet women I'd come to know. Her love for her children and her willingness to care for my son Greg (then age 5), will always keep her in my mind and heart for helping me when I had to work. Mary Lynn. You were truly a blessing when I needed help. I am grateful, and my deepest sympathies go out to your sons and your grandchildren.
I am so sorry that I only just heard of your passing. Peace be with you.
