

Matthew J. Morash

August 9, 2017

He was born in Concord, MA on October 8, 1993 and grew up in Townsend graduating from North Middlesex Regional High School. Matty was a gentle soul who loved the simple things - his family above all. He loved learning to surf, fishing with his father, long talks with his stepmother, and being anywhere with his siblings. His laugh was contagious and his nature was pure.

He leaves his father and stepmother, Glenn Morash and Stacia Clinton of Portsmouth, NH, his mother and stepfather, Jennifer (Jones) Morash and David Azuley of Sandwich; two brothers, Patrick Morash and Nicholas Morash; a sister, Kimberly Morash and two nieces, Lillyana and Addison Morash and a large extended family who loved him very much.

“ Glenn, Pat, Nick and Kim, I am so sorry and deeply saddened by your tremendous loss.
Matt, growing up, was a regular member of our family. There are so, so many moments that I can remember.
I pray that you are comforted and surrounded by loving family and friends during your time of grieving.

“ My Dear, Sweet Matty - there are not words to convey how the loss of you has affected me . You were a kindred spirit who didn't know his own worth. It comforts me to know that now you know how loved you are and that you are Home. This world is a lesser place with you gone. I pray for you and for all of us.

“ We are heartbroken for you and your family. We have continued to keep you all in our prayers.
Stacia, you changed Matty's life for the better in more ways than you will ever know. You were the most loving caring supportive mother that he could've ever hope for. You had a way of connecting with him like no other. You made his life a better one just by being who you are.
I will continue to pray for him and for you and Glenn and the family.

“ My Dearest Matty, The unexpected loss of you saddens & aches my heart in a way I can never explain, I've loved you so much since the day you were born & of course the day we were both baptized so I could be your godmother! You can now be free and shine like you always have in the sun, the moon, & stars. Sleep well my love. Forever & Always, your Auntie
