“ In Memory of my cousin Maureen

I remember always my American cousin Maureen's lively nature and beautiful smile. I knew that she was seriously ill and hospital, but still her departure came as surprise to me and all of us. I hoped life would win.

Especially as a child it was exciting to wait for her and her mother to visit here in Finland. They were always wellcome quests. They wanted to meet as many relatives as possible in a short time, even though we we so many families. The last time I saw Maureen at my mother's funeral 12 years ago. She stayed overnight at my family place. It was nice midst all the sadness.

Here she was missed by her aunt and three uncles with their families, the late aunt's children and their families, and the late uncle's two wives and their families.

There were 21 of us cousins, now the farthest is gone. We will always remember her, the memories will remain even she is no more.

Surely her cats miss her too.

Strength for your great grief husband Peter and mother Helli and our other relatives there
