

Melayah E. Valiton

April 22, 2016 - December 21, 2022

WORCESTER: Melayah E. Valiton, 6, of Worcester passed away unexpectedly Wednesday, December 21, 2022, surrounded by her loving family. Melayah was born April 22, 2016 in Fitchburg the youngest child to Jennifer L. (Valiton) Danso.

Melayah was stricken ill in September with a very rare, life threatening, Autoimmune Disease that attacked her lungs. Melayah fought strong for 3½ months, waiting for a lung transplant. During her time at BCH, she was loved and cared for by the nurses and doctors of the ICU children's unit.

Melayah loved the color pink, LOL dolls or anything LOL, flowers, glitter, painting her nails and unicorns. Truly sassy and full of life. Being the youngest of 7 children, Melayah loved all the attention she got from her sisters and brothers; she adored them all. Melayah is a self proclaimed princess who never left her mommy's side. Melayah had just begun school as a 1st grader at Woodland Academy in Worcester, MA.

Princess Melayah is survived by her Mommy, Jennifer L. Danso of Worcester; her sisters, Kadeishia D. Valiton, Emmaly R. Danso ; her brothers, Keegan J. Valiton, Jayceon York, Emmerson K. Danso and Tavarion R. Danso all of Worcester; her uncle Martin A. Valiton and wife, Lea of Melrose, her aunts Jessica and Julie Valiton of Fitchburg and Amanda N. Valiton of Worcester; her nephews, Kamashae, Kamarion, Ky'Aire and Kai'Eil Collins all of Fitchburg; her great aunts Hilary and Maureen Forgues of Fitchburg.. Melayah is also survived by two great uncles, many many cousins and friends.

A memorial service will be held at Isabelle & Anderson Funeral Home, 316 Clarendon Street, Fitchburg on January 22, 2023 from 1pm to 3pm with a Celebration of Life to immediately follow at Saima Park, 67 Scott Road in Fitchburg, MA.
