My family is heart broken. Mike was the first person we met when my brother Joe moved into Anwelt this July. He was always willing to lend a helping hand and had a great comical sense of humor to boot!! He was a happy go lucky guy who we always looked forward to seeing him around the complex. He would be the first one in a crowd who would sometimes gather outside, to always give us a big wave, no matter how far away we parked. We looked up to him as the Anwelt Ambassador and will miss not seeing him coming out the front door with a big smile on his face, as if he were on a mission! Our sincere condolences to his entire family. First impressions are lasting impressions!! We will miss you Mike for we already do!! Fondly, Joe, Jo-Ann & Mary Altieri
