“ My very first memory of Miriam was meeting her at the Army base on her wedding day to my brother, Jim. She was a beautiful bride and so excited that our family was there. I think it was the first wedding I had ever attended! I know that she is now up in Heaven, and will no longer be suffering. My condolences go out to my niece, Paula, and her family from both me and her Uncle Tim. Time will slowly heal your heartbreak, Paula. We both love you. Aunt Joy

Dear Paula, both Sam and I are deeply saddened by your loss. We pray God will give you and your family strength and comfort now and in your times of grief. God must have looked around his garden and saw an empty place, then looked upon the earth and saw her tied face. He put his arms around her and lifted her to rest now she's met my mom and we have double double blessings and strength 🌹
