“ Ken and family, I'm deeply saddened for your loss and also that you did not have much more time enjoying your happy new life in Maine, Ken.

Nancy was a truly beautiful, sweet person, and knowing her enriched my life. She was kind, caring, and was always a joy to talk with. Even during all her worries and sadness over family health issues and serious struggles, she kept her faith and positive attitude. And her smile was truly beautiful.

Please accept my sincere sympathy. I'm very sorry but will not be able to attend her service or calling hours because I broke my leg 8 days ago and am house bound for now. I'll be thinking of you all during the calling hours and service, wishing I could be there to let you know in person how very sorry I am for your loss. You are in my heart and prayers.

Love
