“ I will never forget that you let us call you "Gunk" for 28 years, because when I was a toddler and couldn't say your name, it came out that way.

I remember waking up on a weekend morning, to fight Brittany and Makenzie to sit with you on the couch. The smell of the breakfasts you made for us growing up. How you could walk into a kitchen and make something from nothing. How the "SOUP" was the most well known family mystery, and most sought after meal. How for my birthday you would make me Shrimp Scampi, because everyone else was afraid of cooking shrimp.

I will remember the "uncle donut" mornings with Kalea, You, Dad, and Papa cooking and giving us mini donettes. You taught us how to cook, you taught us how to be strong, you taught us how to laugh, and always hoped we'd learn right from wrong.

Rest in the sweetest peace forever Gunk. Your laugh will always be in our hearts and always on our minds! We love you so much <3
