

Pamela A. (Caron) Washburn

January 28, 1959 - September 6, 2022

GARDNER- Pamela A. (Caron) Washburn, 63 of Gardner, passed away on Tuesday, September 6, 2022.

Born in Groton, on January 28, 1959, and raised in New Ipswich, Pamela was one of 3 siblings; born to the late Roland G. and Dorothy (Welch) Caron.

A graduate of Boston College and Boston University, Pamela received her Masters in education. Prior to that, she became legally blind when she was 24 years old. Her life changing experience sparked her to help those who were in her situation; from there, she became a special education teacher for the visually impaired. She worked at Keystone since 2006 and previous to that worked for the Worcester Public School system.

Pamela will always be remembered for her heart of gold and her deep love for her family. After her mother died, she cared for her sister and brother; kept them focused. She tried to get together with everyone whenever she could; specifically the holidays and other special occasions.

Pamela is lovingly survived by her husband of 18 years, Paul Washburn; her brother, Jeffery Caron of Greenfield, NH; her sister, Audrey Caron of Amherst, NH; and her aunt, Kathleen Welch of Townsend.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to visiting hours on Friday, September 16, 2022 from 4-7 pm in T.J Anderson & Son Funeral Home, 250 Main Street, Townsend. “ A sad goodbye to Pam, my forever friend. I loved getting together some years, trying to ‘catch up’ but sometimes for sad occasions. Others, for fun and reuniting! Pam touched many lives, was such a dedicated educator, and had the perseverance to keep moving forward! How inspiring! Pam was also funny, and I know we giggled all the way from kindergarten on through high school. I keep and cherish all my memories with Pam and her family! Sending my sincere condolences with love.

“ Miss Pam has been my vision specialist since I was in third grade (now a senior in HS) I will always remember her compassion, quick wit, and her unique support skills. I am forever grateful to have known her. I will miss our bi-weekly chats greatly. My sincere condolences to her husband Paul and her family. Rest in Peace my wonderful friend and mentor Pam.
