

Patricia Ann (O'Malley) Markham

August 11, 2017

Pat was born in Clinton on March 15, 1934 a daughter of the late Pater J. and Helen (Ruane) O'Malley. She graduated from Clinton High School and went on to receive her bachelor degree from Emmanuel College.

After graduating from college, she worked as a teacher in the Ayer School system. Pat had taken time off to raise her family before returning to work as an ESL teacher in Devens.

She was an active member of St. Mary's Parish in Ayer.

Pat leaves her husband of 59 years, R. Neville Markham of Ayer; three daughters, Mary P. Markham and her husband Robert Sama of Ayer, Jane M. Weinstein and her husband Brian of Needham and Elizabeth A. Sarno-Hill and her husband Robert Hill of Somersworth, NH; five grandchildren, Leslie Chinburg and her husband Noah, Emily Sama, Mark Sama, Miles Weinstein and Elizabeth Weinstein. She is predeceased by a son Richard N. Markham, Jr. in 2002, a grandson, Matthew Sarno in 2005 and her brother, Peter J. O'Malley on 2009.

“ Love and prayers to the Markham Family. Pat is wonderful and all are part of the bedrock of the community...R. Neville, the late Richard, Mary, Elizabeth, our beloved classmate AHS '84 Jane, and extended family. May Pat rest in peace and, yet another reminder to always, cherish your mother and father ~ even per the Mosaic Code. Thank you to the entire family for all of your continuous service. Peace be with you and always hold Pat close to your heart.

*"Grace and peace from G*D [Titus 1: 4]."*
