“ To John, Chris, Will, and the rest of Patrick's family,
I am so sorry to hear this news; thank you for the call, Chris.
My memories of college (and beyond) with Pat are so varied. We shared together a love of books and ideas during our English major years, Sunday evenings at Bates mass, roommate hijinks, beers and friends at the Goose and The Cage, prep school gossip and career planning... so many thoughtful conversations, puns and word play, and big ol' belly laughs! Pat loved a trick and a prank and cleverly worded zinger!
I hope you can work towards peaceful memories in the coming days, weeks, and months. I'll see you next Tuesday.

I am shocked and very saddened to hear this news. Pat was a great friend from Groton, and I have been nearby and didn't call very often. I loved his sense of humor and will always remember him for that.

To Pat's family,

My thoughts are with you at this incredibly sad time in your lives.

I worked with Pat for many years in my capacity as Communications Director at Brimmer and May School. He was the utmost professional —smart, insightful, thoughtful, and kind. It was always a pleasure to work with him, and he really helped us focus our efforts.

May memories of happy, healthy times together help you through this very difficult time.
