“ So sorry for your passing. You were an inspiration to Neil and to know we were almost related. Love you so much. Thanks for your help with guiding Neil and Nicki onto altar serving and helping them with youth groups. They surely looked up to you. You were a great person with an awesome heart. You will be missed. I didn't see you as often as I would of liked but I knew we both had busy lives. God definitely took a special angel when he took you. Until we meet again you will always hold a special place in our hearts. Love the Doucette and Heath famil

“ So sorry to hear of your passing Paul. We had some great times from Camp Fatima, Donna, Bob, Hughie. Moe and so many. Always remember your parties in Peabody and how you helped me with my first car, how to tune it up and change the oil. You were a great friend! Unfortunately we didn't continue getting together after weddings and children, having them keep us so busy. Donna and Bob kept me informed. I've always thought of you. I pray you're at peace, not suffering anymore. To your wife and children, I send prayers and love. You'll always be with them in their hearts. RIP

“ Paul was the Christian image of his brother Stan. Both share a love of God and their fellow man. Stan has been a wonderful friend to us in ways reminiscent of the words written about Paul. God rest Paul who fought the good fight and is now at rest.
God Bless you, Paul

“ In our lifetimes, if we're lucky, we get to encounter a person like Paul. His spirit and faithfulness to his family and to God and to all who surrounded him were exemplary indeed. My love and admiration for you, dear friend, is abundant and shall continue to be forever. Thanks for all that you've been and for setting the standard for the rest of us. You were the greatest of gifts to those of us who've been left behind. I am proud of you my friend! I am sending a bottomless pot of beans to Heaven!! I know you'll be sharing with Aunt Liz! Peggy, Patty, Chris, Matthew, Michael, and Alexa. Thank you for sharing your beloved husband, father, and grandpa with me! I love you all and am so very sorry for this huge loss.

“ Paul and I became friends almost 40 years ago and in those early years, his contribution to the development of youth ministry at St. John's was incalculable. His gifts of loyalty, generosity, wisdom and compassion became foundations for forming life long friendships. Paul's deep faith and great loving heart made him an ideal mentor for teens, and a role model for me of lived faith. Peggy, Matt, Patty and Chris, I am so sorry for your loss. I hope that you will feel some measure of the Peace that Paul is now enjoying as he most certainly heard the words, "Well done, good and faithful servant." Love to you all.

“ I first met Paul when we were both volunteering at Camp Fatima EC Week. Over the years, we became friends and neighbors. He was a hard working volunteer for EC Week, St. John’s Church, and many other endeavors. He was always willing to help , loved working with children and a devoted father and grandfather. He will be greatly missed.

“ Paul was a dear friend with an enormous heart and hug. We worked on many projects at church over the years and he truly was a Good Samaritan to all. He didn't so much talk about his faith as live it. We were blessed to have been a part of his life.

What a beautiful soul! For almost forty years Paul embodied the qualities of loyalty, wisdom, compassion and generosity as a friend and as a member of his church family. His contribution to the creation of youth Ministry at St John's Is immeasurable. His great love for young people coupled with deep lived faith made Paul a worthy mentor for teens and a role model for me. Peg, Patty and Matt I am so sorry for your loss, yet I can't help but smile when I think of the greeting that he must have heard, 'well done, good and faithful servant.' May you feel a portion of the Peace he now enjoys. Love you. Lisa Sciacca
