

Paul Cheries

April 30, 1935 - July 31, 2023

ASHBURNHAM – Paul Cheries, 88, of Ashburnham, passed away peacefully on July 31, 2023 in River Terrace Healthcare.

Paul was born in Fitchburg on April 30, 1935, a son of the late Frank and Madeline (Renzoni) Cheries. He proudly served his country in the US Army as a SP-4 until his honorable discharge in 1960.

Paul worked as a paper maker for the former Crocker Burbank, Weyerhaeuser, James River Paper Company for 34 years until his retirement. In his younger years Paul enjoyed snowmobiling, camping, and traveling. He loved taking day trips to the beach with his beloved wife Irene (Forget), who passed away last year. Family was very important to Paul and Irene, every Sunday they looked forward to hosting a cookout.

Paul was a member of the Saint Joseph Club and always enjoyed going to the movies.

He is survived by his brother Robert Cheries of Fitchburg as well as many nieces and nephews.

At Paul's request, burial in Forest Hill Cemetery will be held privately. The Isabelle and Anderson Funeral Home, 316 Clarendon St., Fitchburg is directing arrangements.

Tribute Wall

WC

“ Goodbye Paul

I remember going to your wedding a T Turner Hall in Fitchburg. I was only 8 or 9 but distinctly remember the white wedding jacket you wore. It was the first wedding I had attended and had fun. I also remember the family getting together at your dads camp on Lake Naukaeg for cookouts

You will be missed

Your cousin

Wayne Cheries

Wayne Cheries - August 05, 2023 at 12:11 PM