

Pauline Eva (Cormier) Holstrom

July 17, 1936 - July 7, 2018

LEOMINSTER- Pauline E. (Cormier) Holstrom, 81, of Leominster, died Saturday afternoon, July 7, 2018 in the Life Care Center of Leominster surrounded by her loving family.

Pauline was born in Fitchburg, on July 17, 1936, a daughter of the late Tilman and Delina (Berube) Cormier and has resided in Leominster since 1971.

She worked as a sales associate for Marshalls in Fitchburg then Leominster for over twenty years prior to her retirement.

Pauline was an ardent Red Sox fan and was an avid reader of mystery stories. She also enjoyed bird-watching and playing bingo weekly at St. Cecilia Parish. She was a life-long cat owner, and adored all of her cats.

She leaves her husband of 63 years, Raymond J. Holstrom of Leominster; two sons, Gary M. Holstrom and his wife Anne of Gardner and Mark R. Holstrom and his wife Karen of Leominster; a daughter, Lynn A. Miller and her husband, David of Fitchburg; two grandchildren, Lauren Donaldson and her husband Shane of West Boylston, and Stephen L. Holstrom and his wife Amelia of Wilbraham; four great-grandchildren, Kaylie Donaldson, Jacob Donaldson, Carter Holstrom and Reid Holstrom as well as many nephews and nieces.

She is predeceased by her three brothers, Leon Cormier formerly of Leominster, Norman Cormier and Ernest Cormier both formerly of Fitchburg.

Pauline's quiet, kind and peaceful nature will be greatly missed by all. Her funeral service will be held on Friday, July 13 at 10 AM in the Isabelle and Anderson Funeral Home, 316 Clarendon St., Fitchburg. Burial will be in the St. Joseph's Cemetery in Fitchburg. Calling hours in the funeral home will be held on Thursday, July 12, from 4 to 7 PM.

The Holstrom family would like to extend their deepest gratitude to Life Care Center of Leominster for their exemplary care during Pauline's final days and hours.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to NEADY Cats, P.O. Box 213 West Boylston, MA.
