“ so sorry to hear of Pearl's passing she was a great arunt with such a dry since of humor the Austin way ,will miss her greatly I can remember you guys living in the garage on Wendell Depot road and the day my Dad brought the dozer there to dig the cellar hole for her new home. God Bless! I can see you working with Mrs. Fleming on your rugs as I went for my 25 cent hair cut and he always gave me a nickle back for candy.What I would not give for one of grama Chaplins cookies and run off to play in the rain barrel behind the Flemings barn. Again sorry for your Great Loss!
