

Peter J. Ouellette, of Dartmouth

February 19, 1939 - March 26, 2026

Dartmouth, MA – Peter Joseph Ouellette, 87, of Dartmouth, MA passed away peacefully at St. Luke’s Hospital on Thursday afternoon, March 26, 2026.

He was born in Nashua, NH on February 19, 1939, to the late Peter H. and Marie C. (Mehegan) Ouellette of Brookline, NH. Being the oldest of three siblings, Peter became the helping hand for his mom after his dad’s passing at the age of seven. And he stayed close to his siblings throughout his life.

Peter graduated from Boston University in 1960 and later attended graduate school in Financial Accounting. He met Robert Parsons in the early 60’s, a resident of Dartmouth and an educator, who specialized in private school placement services. Dartmouth became Peter’s home for many years, where he made many of his friends and was involved in the community.

Peter was a generous volunteer, he was a Dartmouth Town Meeting member for many years, and he did taxes at Dartmouth Council on Aging for AARP where many of his friends/neighbors got their taxes done. And he continued doing their taxes at his home after his retirement from the Council. He was involved with DNRT, Buzzards Bay Collision and Allen’s Pond Association. He loved Classical Music where he volunteers for The Concert at the Point in Westport and loved attending the New Bedford Symphony orchestra.

Peter was a faithful catholic and attended St. John's Church in Westport, MA. He volunteered for many trips to Honduras with a group of church members to help the poor people with The Olancho Project led by Claire Sullivan.

Peter's friendship with William Sooter evolved in early 2000's when Bob Parson became home bound with Parkinson's disease. Over the years a strong brotherhood became their life. He was a true gentleman in every way; he showed kindness to everyone he met.

Peter is survived by his sister, Marie C. Ouellette of Brookline, NH. He was predeceased by his brother Charles A. Ouellette, who died in 2024 and his nephew, Charles W. Sullivan, who died in 2014.

His funeral Mass will be celebrated on Thursday, April 23, at 11Am in St. John the Evangelist Church, 1 School St., Townsend, followed by a burial in the Pine Grove Cemetery in Brookline, NH.

In Memory of Peter, you can make a donation to DNRT, Buzzards Bay Collision or Allen's Pond Association.
