

Philip L. Draleau

May 20, 2017

Phil was born on July 6, 1927 in Shirley, a son of the late Louis M. and Mildred L. (Wheeler) Draleau of Shirley and had resided there all of his life.

Phil served in the U.S. Navy stationed in Guam in W.W. II. He was as an active member of St. Anthony's Parish. In his younger years he acquired his private pilot's license and enjoyed flying over the skies of Shirley. He was a self-employed excavating contractor, well known for his strong work ethic and generosity.

Above all, he enjoyed his family. Only a short month ago he celebrated his 65th wedding anniversary with his devoted wife, Jacqueline, and their family. Together, he and Jackie shared the joy of sixteen grandchildren, twenty-four great-grandchildren and, most recently, one great-great-grandchild.

Philip was predeceased by his parents, and his son, Daniel J. Draleau. He is survived by his wife Jacqueline (Gionet) Draleau, and their children, Marc Draleau and his wife Christine Flaherty of Newburyport, MA; Dennis Draleau and his wife Patricia of Moses Lake, WA; Pamela Keye and her husband John of Snohomish, WA; Steven Draleau and his wife Gillian of Shirley, MA and Janet Dumbleton and her husband William of Shirley, MA.

“ Dear Mrs. Draleau: I just heard about Mr. Draleau's passing. I am so sorry for you and your family. The two of you were a great example of marriage, dedication and love. He was a great husband and wonderful father. I always thought if I had a father, he was what I would have wanted. I loved him and respected him so much. I will pray for you and the family. Love always, Carla

“ Phil will always be remembered by me as one of the "Dirt Guys". He worked with me and for me on a few of my projects and I am forever grateful for having experienced his generosity, professionalism and humor first hand. I have learned from him and take with me the honor of considering him a friend. He will be missed and my God rest his sole.
