

Phyllis E. (Amadon) Reynolds

June 28, 2017

She was born in Townsend, on January 28, 1949 a daughter of the late Harold Q. and G. Marian (Shepherd) Amadon. She was a 1967 graduate of North Middlesex High School and had resided in Townsend for most of her life before moving to Ayer in 1982.

Phyllis was employed by the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health for twenty years prior to her retirement in 2002. Following her retirement she worked as a bus driver for Gokey & Quinn Bus Company where she drove for the Groton School Department.

She was an active member of the Federated Church of Ayer and the Ayer Gun and Sportsman Club. Phyllis enjoyed cooking and through the years was active in the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts.

Most of all Phyllis' life was centered on her family; she was a loving wife, devoted mother, and cherished grandmother.

She leaves her husband, Norman J. Reynolds of Ayer; a daughter, Melissa G. Berry of Ayer; two sons, William J. Reynolds and his companion Fatima Castro of Milford, MA and Wayne M. Berry and his companion Heather Fohlin of Rochester, NH; three brothers, Stephen A. Amadon of Gaffney, SC, Paul Q. Amadon of New Bedford and Billy Amadon of Townsend; five sisters, Carlene R. Whitemore of Townsend, Priscilla Wentworth of Raymond, NH, Carol Amadon of Belfast, ME and M. Jean Hewitt of Florida and Faith Luhala of New Ipswich, NH; five grandchildren, Gabriella, Ava, Jackson, Caleb and Riley and several nephews and nieces.

She was predeceased by two brothers, Richard Amadon and Robert Amadon

“ My sincerest sympathy to the Reynolds and Amadom families. I have known Phyllis since we were little kids. I would go up to the farm when my father would be doing work there and she and I would play together.
My prayers that she may rest in peace.
