“ Butch was a great friend. I'll miss all the late nights talking with him, and playing borderlands with him. You take time for granted, in the end there's never enough.

I'll miss you Butch

“ In this lifetime we get to see so many people, but , few really do stand out like Ralph did . He never had an ill word to say about anyone . He was so gentle and kind , although you could not take his kindness for weakness , because he was strong and had good discernment . He enjoyed helping others who wanted to be helped , such as the U.S. Veterans and the ones near his homestead. In this world were we are making equity and inclusion major action words , Ralph was a perfect example of how we should be , he always included everyone in the room and would remember to always thank them and say Goodbye to them before he left the room .Always including everyone equally . You will be missed Ralph . Thank you for your Service its time for the Heavenly Angels to Service you and comfort your family here on Earth in this time of Loss .
