“ My deepest condolences Mary, Becky & Amanda, Donnie, Carol and Di. I have so many laugh memories - yankee swaps with the family, so many family events, but most recent and probably most funny would have to be when we all danced with Grammy Gin at the Pepperell Community Center. Di, Mary, Rick, Carol and would most often be laughing while trying to dance especially watching Rick and his exaggerated moves - truly great times. Peaceful journey home Rick. Love, Lou Lou

“ We cherished Rick's friendship while we lived in Brookline and attended Faith Baptist church. He had an amazing garage and so talented to repair, restore or build most anything. We too look forward to the time we will all be reunited for eternity. Ron and Suzanne Brown

“ We're so grateful for all the fun memories (like "fishing" for dentures) we've shared over the past 40 plus years that we've been friends. You always amazed us with your mad MacGyver like skills. We'll miss your stories, laughter, and smiles. Looking forward to spending eternity with you. Ron and Sue
