May 1, 1943 - April 23, 2022

Mr. Crowe was born in Shirley, May 1, 1943, a son of Henry H. and Evelyn A. (Nutting) Crowe and was a lifelong Shirley resident.

Dickie could be found working in his garage and enjoyed his trucks, camping and family gatherings. He was proud of the 1931 Model A that he restored.

He leaves his loving wife of 57 years, Phyllis L. (Woodward) Crowe; four sons, Richard A. Crowe, Jr. and his wife Donna of Lunenburg; Brian A. Crowe and Pam Culkins of Shirley; Robert A. Crowe of Northumberland, New Hampshire; Brett A. Crowe and his husband Dan Wolshin of Boylston; one sister, Dorothy

M. Henry of Shirley and four grandchildren: Trisha, Tarah, Brian Jr. and Benjamin Crowe. He also leaves countless devoted nieces and nephews and his black Pomeranian, "Poozie".

Richard was pre-deceased by his three brothers and two sisters: Henry "Harrison", Warren "Jake" and John "Mickey" Crowe, Bertha Baker and Hazel "Peewee" Walters, all of Shirley.

“ To Phyllis and family, sorry to hear this sad news. We went back so many years??? I can remember when C+W form stood for Crowe and Walsh! They split and Dickie taught the kids. I even painted 1 of the trucks before Jeff,s Auto Body when I worked for Bob Cassavechia!! I loved the guy as he always helped with my projects. His brothers Jake and John were the same breed! Truly some of the best people I have ever known. That goes for the entire family. Respectfully, Jeff Dusti - Jeff,s Auto Body

“ My sympathy. I am sorry, I just read this news after being away for many weeks. Like his obituary states, he did it all himself! I am thankful to Dickie and the boys for help on my projects. He will be missed. He was a genuine Shirley guy with many treasured stories, recommendations for spicy food, and lots of town history with good laughs. Rest in Peace!

What a wonderful tribute, Dr. Eddy. Thank you so much. I read this as I sit on the deck at our own home remembering how my father-in-law, my friend, helped us clear the lot, put in the foundation, paint the walls etc. Every stage of the process and later celebrations have a Dickie story attached. He is truly missed. I will make sure Phyllis is still watching this site to see your remembrance. God bless.

Thank you for such kind words and remembrance, Scott. Richie said you did a lot of work together. He also remembers you driving him back from Townsend years ago, when his black Laser got stuck in the mud. Dickie of course went right back there with the flatbed to wedge it out. We appreciate the memories.

“ When we camped as a family, with Dickie driving the RV, I would bug him every so many miles and ask, “Are we there yet?” I know he hated the inquiry as much as he started to expect it. Now I wonder, “Is he there yet?”
