

Richard E. Henry

December 26, 2017

Mr. Henry was born in Ayer, July 8, 1928, a son of William R. Henry and Marjorie E. (Robbins) Henry and was a lifelong resident of Shirley.

He was a machinist by trade and worked at Chandler Machine in Ayer, Genrad of Bolton and Concord (which later became Teradyne) and Maxant Industries in Ayer. He was a member of the Caleb Butler Masonic Lodge of Ayer.

He served his country in the United States Coast Guard as a gunner's mate on the ice cutter, Eastwind stationed at Plum Island, Massachusetts.

He is survived by his son, Richard W. Henry of Shirley; a daughter Marianne Henry Lindgren of Pepperell; a brother, Paul Henry of Shirley; a sister, Martha Bouffard of Leicester; two grandchildren, Angelique Henry Parker and Michael Henry Lindgren and a great grandchild Trinity DeSantiago.

He was predeceased by his brother, William Henry of Shirley and sister, Ruth Huxley also of Shirley.

Mr. Henry loved working with metal, wood and had keen interests in nature and the outdoors. He created wrought iron plant hangers and candle stick holders which lead the Dunstable Artisans to invite him to join them and sell his creations at their annual art sale. Mr. Henry had much to do with inspiring Sholan Farms to add a blueberry patch to their farm.
