“ I worked with Rick at Squannacook and every morning when I was the first to arrive he greeted me, carrying his coffee mug, with a smile and conversation. He was right there whenever I contacted him, for whatever was needed in a classroom and throughout the building. He was a hard worker, kind, a true gentleman and fought through his illness with amazing grit. You will be missed. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Rick is someone I worked with for a number of years here at Nissitissit, a man we're all better for having known, he was always a joy to be around and I learned a lot from him, and I wouldn't be who I am now without having known him. Even as his health was in decline, and as we kept less in touch over time, Rick was always someone you could call on for help, and good for a bit of banter. I'm deeply sorry for your loss, Rick will be missed
