

Robert W. Brown, 88 of Lunenburg

December 8, 1936 - February 15, 2025

LUNENBURG : Robert W. Brown, 88, of Lunenburg passed away peacefully February 15, 2025 at Health Alliance, Leominster Hospital, surrounded by loved ones.

He was born in Waltham, December 8, 1936, a son of Lawrence S. and Thelma (Warren) Brown and was a graduate of Lunenburg High School.

From 1959 – 1962 Robert served his country in the United States Army attaining the rank of Specialist 5th Class. Much of Robert's career was spent at AT & T as an International Calls Technician.

Robert was a loving and supportive father who instilled in his children a love for God's natural world through his passion for it. He was a modest man with a confident faith that helped him move through this world in life and enabled him to move onto the next with grace.

He was predeceased by his wife of 53 years, Barbara Grace (Cairns) Brown in 2020 and his younger brother, James Brown in 2021.

The love he showed his two children, Steven Robert Brown and Laurie Beth Whitney, was returned to him many times over by three wonderful grandsons and six beautiful great-grandchildren. He is also survived by two wonderful sisters in law and a brother in law as well as four wonderful nephews, a niece, grand nephews and nieces.

He demonstrated to his children, by example, how to be loving parents.

He was laid to rest at the North Cemetery in Lunenburg following a wonderful celebration of his life at the First Baptist Church of West Townsend which was attended by his neighbors, family and community.

Cemetery Details

North Cemetery

Holman St.
Lunenburg, MA 01462