“ Not sure where to start. Some of my earliest memories are of Bobbie and I running from streetlight pole to streetlight pole on the old St Mary's grammar school parking lot at recess trying to out due each other. Our little league games, under the lights in Ayer, where the things of dreams. The Cote family has always held a very warm place in my and my family's heart. Rest In Peace my friend...and may you always know when my curveball was coming...and you did!

“ So very sad. Oh the memories I have of our growing up across the street from each other, in what I call my 'black and white-Spanky and the Gang' neighborhood. We tried it all! You can't take them with you, those memories are mine to keep! I will cherish your smile, sense of adventure and laughter for ever. We will meet again my friend, you will be missed.
RIP Bobby

To meet Bobby only once would leave you knowing you met a genuinely kind caring humble humanbeing! He really left you no option! Bobby was a man of modest needs...and was able to live his life to the fullest! Sadly for us he left to soon...but happily for Heaven. ...the Red Sox "Cote clan fan club are getting a huge boost".....and "hell of a Band" just picked up a great "juice-harp" player!!!

RIP. Cousin n friend!
