

Robert A. Eramo

March 14, 1955 - September 18, 2020

Shirley: Robert Anthony Eramo, “Bob, Bobby, Robert, Bramo, Dad, Daddy, Pappa, Rocket,” 65 years young, had a personality bigger than life itself.

God recognized that in him and took him for Himself on September 18, 2020.

Beloved husband to Susan Therese for 39 years, most devoted dad to Christina Maria-ICU RN, Maria Therese-HR Professional and her husband Derrick, Joseph Francis-US Navy Veteran, Francis John-Business owner, Veronica Mary-HR Professional and her fiancé Michael, Benedict Anthony-US Marine Corps Veteran and his significant other Tiffany, Angelo Gabriel-US Marine Corps Veteran, and Vincent Theodore-Student athlete. Adored Pappa to Sophia, Leonardo, Enzo, Nathan, Evelyn and Gabriella. Adopted son of the late Alderico and Pauline Eramo of Worcester, MA, son of his beloved mother and father, Josephine and Peter Arsenault of Leominster, MA. Proudest brother to Debbie, Kathy, Jimmy, David, and Peter Jr. Uncle to many nieces and nephews, grand nieces and grand nephews, friend and mentor to many.

Born March 14th, maybe 15th, 1955, in Boston MA, Bob lived in Worcester for most of his life. He loved using a discrepancy on his birth certificate to get an extra cake and birthday dinner every year. White cake, chocolate frosting and homemade gnocchi's with red sauce, to be exact. A graduate of St. John's HS in Shrewsbury, a hockey star at Worcester State College-holding Hall of Fame records that have not been broken, and a business man attaining his MBA side by side with his Susan from Assumption College in Worcester.

Bob held many jobs, a born salesman, but his most treasured job was that of “Dad”. He married Susan, his “Cook/Cookie,” in 1981 and created an incredible home for the 8 children who would follow. He provided, he nurtured, he taught, he protected, he always came to bat for any one of us. He never missed any game or competition. He was the loudest cheerleader no matter where he sat in the stands. He was a cheerleader on the field, but maintained that title from thousands of miles away. He was the (loud) voice of reason and steadfast rock regardless of whether sons were overseas, daughters lived a country apart, or children remained under the same roof. He loved his mother, and every day wished he had more time with her. He caused shenanigans with his brothers and sisters-to see them all as children would have been amazing. He beamed when he played with or held his grandchildren. He was a man of faith. He commanded a room. He was a comedian, he was dramatic, he was a huge hug, he was passionate, he made friends wherever he went. He twitched when he was mad and laughed when he was happy. He loved coffee with cream only and pasta (homemade) with red sauce. He loved pizza. He made an instagram account solely so he could watch a pizza reviewer. He loved golf, loved hockey, loved watching his boys especially play sports. He was obnoxiously loud in the stands. He loved sitting in matching recliners with his old man dog Brady. He hated the song “Build me up Buttercup,” but had an affinity for Maxi Priest reggae and the voice of Andrea Bocelli. He held high standards, he held doors, he took off his hat, he put a hand on his heart, he taught his kids respect and how to be tough when life throws curveballs. He was devoted to country, but also his community and made a large impact for families and kids that weren’t his own. He was the most interesting man in the world-loved for his ponytail phase, his non-beard face, wore Tommy Bahama shirts and occasionally smoked a cigar. He threatened knuckle sandwiches but never actually gave one and would take a bullet for any of his own if he had to.

So “hey, hey, hey” Robert, Bob, Bobby, Robert, Bramo, Dad, Daddy, Pappa, Rocket--you had a wild side, but you also had an amazing grace. You will leave a void that can never be filled, but they say that grief is the price of love. The love felt for you by those you left here is immeasurable. There is no doubt that your ticket to the moon came with a bottle of Barolo. All the grief is worth the honor of loving and having a life with you.

“ While we worked together for 15 years (Anixter, Ameritech, SBC, AT&T), Bob was a good friend, an ally, and outstanding manager. He taught me many things that I hear in his voice when I think of them, "Good Fast, or Cheap. Pick two, you can't have all three". "To win you have to not be afraid to loose"....
Go well my friend!

I only saw the notice of his passing this evening through a St. John's Alumni announcement and it saddened me greatly. Condolences to his entire family. Bob was a talented goalie and great teammate. “ I only met Bob two years ago when Vinny and my son joined the Fitchburg State baseball team together. I'll miss seeing him at the games. He always knew what was going on, who was going in, getting pulled, what the score was, the inning we were in and wasn't afraid to let the refs know when they made a bad call. He will be missed. My thoughts and prayers to the entire family. May he Rest In Peace. Becky Ferrell.

“ Bob has truly left his mark on this small community through his never-ending generosity in community service. He will certainly be missed and remembered fondly by those of us who had the pleasure of serving on boards and coaching with him. We are all better volunteers and coaches for the experience. Shirley Youth Baseball and Softball does not exist without the tireless work Bob put into building its strong foundation. More importantly than his mark on the town, and it's people, is the impact he made on those that loved him most, his family. Deepest sympathies to all of you. -

“ To the entire Eramo family,
I am so sorry to hear about the sudden passing of Bob. Please accept my deepest condolences. Bob was a proud father, good husband and a true friend to so many who had the pleasure of meeting and interacting with him. Bob was an instrumental figure and proponent for youth sports in Shirley and had a major influence on the Shirley Youth Baseball program and was a driving force behind how successful that program is today. His unmistakable voice, mentorship and friendship will be sorely missed. He was so proud of all of his children and his spirit lives on in all of you. God bless and Rest In Peace Bob.

“ To the Eramo Family,

I have known Bob, "Rocket" since kindergarten. I still remember going to his father's shop in Millbury as Bob's catcher as Al taught him how to pitch. We were part of the "A Field"-Foley Stadium gang and we played baseball together at St. John's. Bob was so proud of his family as his many Facebook posts proved. He was funny, confident and even though we didn't see each other that much, it was like we had seen each other the day before. The memories of your Dad and husband will live on forever. He will surely be missed by all.

“ The saying “your here one day and gone the next” has baffled my mind since i got the phone call on Friday. Bob and i worked together and were golf partners on Thursday all day long, we listened to classic 70’s rock in the golf cart for 18 holes and then had dinner after golf. Bob and I ate many dinners together over these last four years. Bob and i sat next to each other on a plane out to Minnesota for a company training four years ago but it seemed like just last week. We were partners that week and did practically everything together on that trip. Bob had an amazing personality and captured everyone’s attention in the room, on the plane, in the bus, in the hotel lobby, at the bar room, playing pool, during the training classes, eating dinner, you name it, he was the center of attention and everyone respected and liked Bobby. After our trip to Minnesota, Bob went out of his way to give me a ride home in Worcester only to have to drive all the way back home, so i bought him a late night fast food dinner, again one of many we shared. I did a “ride along” with Bob at work and seen him first hand with customers, he was a natural and all he did was talk about his boys in the military. He was a very proud Dad. Words can not describe the loss we will carry for the rest of our lives with his memory. He will be missed deeply. God bless his family!

My family and I want to give our condolences to your family. I want to share the impact Bob had on me. His passion to service the community inspired me. He made Shirley baseball such an amazing organization. His determination to excellence and ability to have everybody's around him to chip in inspired us to start the Bob Eramo Service Award. What I learned from him I have carried on with me to other parts of my life. I am truly a better person for knowing him and will never forget the unbelievable experience he provided for me and my family. We talk often about how we miss the years we spent down on the Shirley fields. I will miss him greatly
